BRIEF ITINERARY

Day 1/ Thursday 1st Oct, 2015: Hanoi Arrival – Hanoi City tour (Welcome Dinner)

Upon your arrival in Noibai International Airport, you will be transferred to your hotel in Hanoi French Quarter. After check in hotel, then we will start our tour to visit the Imperial Citadel of Thang Long, the apex of regional political power for more than a millennium where research and excavation is still underway, and then head to another 11th century relic, the Temple of Literature, which was built in homage to the Chinese scholar Confucius. We will continue to visit the Ngoc Son temple set on a tiny island on the picturesque Hoan Kiem Lake. You'll hear how it got its name from a legend of an emperor, a magic sword and a giant turtle! Take a breezy cyclo ride through the Old Quarter's 36 streets, named after the products that were sold from their shops. End your day with a delightful water puppet show, a traditional art that is still being performed today.

Back to our hotel, you will have a short rest then we will meet our guide and driver again for welcome dinner at a restaurant in town.

Overnight in Hanoi.

Upon your arrival in Lao Cai train station, you will be picked up by our guide and driver, then drive forward Bac Ha Sunday Market.

Bac Ha Market is held every Sunday and is the biggest minority peoples market in Northwest Vietnam. Alive with the bright colours and extravagant costumes of the local people, here you will meet Flower Hmong (Red Hmong), Black Dao, Tay, Nung, La Chi, Phu La and other minority groups who come from far and wide to buy and sell a wide variety of goods and livestock, to exchange news and to renew friendships. In the past the market was a centre for trading horses but now that motorbikes have replaced them it is more common to see buffalo, cows, goats, fish and other livestock being traded. The market opens at around 7.30am and closes mid-afternoon, so an early start is advisable.

Drive to Bac Ha (72km / 1.5 hours from Lao Cai). Take time to wander around the market, enjoy the atmosphere and have fun trying out your trading skills with the friendly local people.

Have lunch in a local restaurant where a variety of foods are available for your delectation and delight. You can even try the traditional local lunch of Thang Co (horse stew) and strong corn wine!

After lunch you will be driven to Ban Pho village where you can take a short walk around the village where Flower Hmong, Tay and Nung minorities live. Enjoy an hour long horse carting trip from Ban Pho village to Na Hoi village. Drive back to Sapa Town. Overnight in Sapa.

- ❖ Accommodation: Sapa Hmong Hotel – 3 stars
- ❖ Room Type: Superior Double/ Twin Room

Day 5/ Monday 5th Oct, 2015: Sapa – Fansipan Climbing – Fansipan (Breakfast/ Lunch/Dinner)

We begin this tour at a practical time of 9.00am. After meeting both your guide and driver, we are transferred by car, a short distance of 15km to begin the start of the climb to Fansipan Mountain. We start the climb at the Park Rangers' Station at a height of 2,000m. Throughout this climb, we can observe and learn about the local cardamom plants, and the uses they have for this local area. Local birds can also be seen throughout this walk, with seasons varying, and the time of year you visit. As we trek up to the height of 2,200m, we relax with a picnic lunch. We then keep on trekking up to the height of 2,800m, taking in the spectacular views along the way. After setting up camp for the night, dinner is cooked on the campfire. Ready to unwind from the day, you will find yourself sleeping soundly, while nestled in amongst the rugged beauty of the mountains.

Day 6/ Tuesday 6th Oct, 2015: Fansipan – Climb on the top of Fansipan – Sapa Town (Breakfast/ Lunch/-)

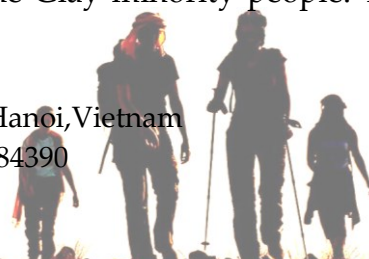

With an early rise of 6.30-7.00am, we have breakfast together before we undertake the final ascent to the very top of Fansipan Mountain. Around 10.00-10.30am, we can celebrate the victorious achievement as we arrive at the very top, 3,143m above sea level. Take some time out, as you absorb the combination of the fresh crisp air, and beautiful views while overlooking Sapa town, admiring its thick green forestry landscape. After enjoying the remarkable views, we commence the descent to 2,800m and enjoy a picnic lunch around 1.30pm. Feeling revitalised after the break, we trek back down to Tram Ton Pass at 2,000m, where our driver awaits and we are transferred back to Sapa Town. Our tour is completed with a soothing herbal medicine bath or foot massage. Overnight in Sapa Town.

Please Note: Sapa is known to be an area consisting of four seasons in one day, therefore the weather can change quite rapidly, altering from heavy mist and fog to warm sunny days. Hence, we cannot guarantee clear views from the top of this mountain.

Day 7/ Wednesday 7th Oct, 2015: Sapa – Y Linh Ho – Lao Chai – Ta Van – Night train to Hanoi (Breakfast/ Lunch/Dinner).

We start the day trekking through the beautiful Muong Hoa Valley to Y Linh Ho village, home to Black Hmong minorities. Weather permitting you will enjoy stunning views across the valley with mountains and rice terraces as far as the eye can see. Next on the route is a stop at Lao Chai, an established Hmong minority village which has been inhabited for centuries. Here you will have the opportunity to see the products of this minority at its best with hereditary rice terraces, homes and a vibrant community. Continuing on to Ta Van Village you will visit the Giay minority people. This group traditionally fished for a living and as a result established themselves close to rivers. They have mastered the art of fishing with bamboo sticks, and cook the fish inside bamboo. Nowadays however you are more likely to see the Giay working in fields planting or harvesting rice. Transport will be waiting in Ta Van to take you back to Sapa town, take a short rest then drive back to Lao Cai train station, take a night train back to Hanoi. Overnight on train.

Day 9/ Friday 9th Oct, 2015: Hue – Phong Nha Ke Bang (Breakfast/ Lunch/Dinner)

Phong Nha-Ke Bang National Park is one of the most spectacular wilderness sites in South East Asia and one of the 2 largest limestone regions in the world.

Destined to become one of Vietnam's major tourist attractions, a vast network of underground caves and passages can be found, along with awesome jungle scenery and fascinating rock formations. This beautiful and little explored region contains the world's longest river cave, Hang Ke Ry and the world's largest cave, Hang Son Doong. Hang Son Doon was discovered in 2009, explored in 2011 by a British caving team and now open to a limited number of tourist from 2014.

Visit one of the wonders of Phong Nha-Ke Bang National Park, Paradise Cave, with its spectacular and magical beauty, opened to the public in December 2011. According to the British Royal Cave Association, at 31.4 km this is the longest, dry cave in Asia.

07:00 Our tour guide will meet you at your hotel in Dong Hoi and brief the tour plan before we leave for Phong Nha – Ke Bang National Park's core zone to discover Son Doong Cave.

11:30 We reach Doong Village, a secluded village in jungle. We will have picnic lunch in the village. After lunch we begin a trek through jungle toward En Cave (Swallow Cave).

14:00 We reach En Cave, a beautiful cave with over 2km in length and 49m in height. We will explore the cave, taking photo then set our camp near a stream. Our support team will catch fish in the stream to cook our dinner.

18:00 Have dinner and sleep in tent.

❖ Accommodation: Sleep in tent in En Cave.

Day 10/ Saturday 10th Oct, 2015: Hang En (Swallow cave) – Danang – Hoi An (Breakfast/ Lunch/-)

08:30 Breakfast at the campsite before we trek toward Doong Village where we have lunch break before driving to Danang and Hoi An.

Arrive Hoi An, check-in hotel then start our Hoi An tour in the afternoon.

We will walk to the old town, buy entrance tickets and begin the tour. Follow the narrow lanes lined with centuries-old houses influenced by Chinese, Japanese, French and European architectures and visit its numerous places of interest: the 400-year old Japanese Covered Bridge, the Phuc Kien Assembly Halls, the local fish market.
